

IF PROVIDING TRANSPARENCY INTO YOUR CLIMATE CHANGE STRATEGIES IS A PRIORITY, ADEC INNOVATIONS (ADEC) CAN HELP.

With experience scoring 20,000+ CDP disclosures globally since 2011, ADEC has the unique, proven capabilities to capture, manage and upload your carbon inventory, as part of a fully managed carbon data collection and reporting solution.*

ADEC's unmatched expertise can be integrated into a customized carbon and climate change strategy to help you achieve:

- Unprecedented cost savings
- Reduced emissions
- Stronger customer relationships
- Business innovations
- Improved business efficiency

Does it take too much effort to gather information from all your offices, factories and warehouses around the world? Are you spending more time chasing after colleagues for electricity, water and fuel bills than you do creating and deploying the climate change strategy that will create long term business value for your company?

With CDP Reporter Services and Supply Chain memberships your organization has access to data, support and insights to reduce emissions and improve business performance. You can benchmark your performance against peers and identify material risks and opportunities with the goal of improving your CDP response and internal sustainability practices.

As CDP's global sustainability outsourcing partner, ADEC has developed an outsourcing service to improve the process around environmental data gathering and documentation. With 30+ years of outsourcing experience with companies around the world, we help you with all the heavy lifting associated with:

- gathering information from your global operations for sustainability impacts
- compiling and converting your operational data into standard carbon and energy information
- communicating your information to key stakeholders internally and externally

And, once your data is compiled and a framework is established, ADEC can also help with next steps, like reporting to CDP.

"As one of our key partners, ADEC has been a valuable asset to our investor and supply chain members and to CDP. Now this enhanced partnership positions ADEC as our go-to solutions provider for any company looking to outsource environmental data collection from complex worldwide operations, and enhance the efficiency of this process. This will enable companies to spend more time on taking action to reduce emissions."
